THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART CLEVELAND 6, OHIO

TELEPHONE: GARFIELD 1-7340

FOR RELEASE Upon receipt

Ohio release list play, assembled from the Cleveland Museum collections, will also remain through Museum's special exhibition galleries August 6 through September 15. The present discipate the forthcoming exhibition DECADE OF THE ARMORY SHOW, circulated by the Cleveland Museum of Art. These works (four paintings, 29 prints and drawings) anti-1913 Armory Show are currently on display in the prints and drawings gallery of The Whitney Museum of American Art, New York. The Whitney exhibit will be shown in the Prints, drawings and paintings by 23 American artists who exhibited in the Hield. S important roles in originating the original Armory Show), Mary Cassatt, Henry G. Keller B. Davies, George W. Bellows, William Glackens, Guy Pene Du Bois (all who played of Cleveland and John Sloan whose print THE PICTURE BUYER was exhibited in the ori-Among the featured artists in the prints and drawings gallery are Arthur

Marsden Hartley, Childe Hassam, Edward Hopper, Leon Kroll, Ernest Lawson, George James A. McNeill Whistler, Mahonri Young, and William Zorach. B. Luks, John Marin, Maurice B. Prendergast, Boardman Robinson, Carl Sprinchorn Further represented are Gifford Beal, Oscar F. Bluemner, Glenn O. Coleman, that the intelligent may judge for themselves." agreed on one thing, that the time has arrived for giving the public here the opportunity an association. It is composed of persons of varying tastes and predilections, who are Arthur B. Davies, the Association's president, explained, "This is not an institution but of American Painters and Sculptors. Just before the show opened, a half-century ago, American art that followed. It was organized by 25 artists, gathered in the Association It brought modern art to America, and made it an American as well as a European phensaid to have been the most important single event in the history of American modernism. to see for themselves the results of new influences at work in other countries in an art omenon, stimulated a still continuing controversy, and altered the direction of . . . Its sole object is to put the paintings, sculptures, and so on, on exhibition so The first Armory Show, celebrating its fiftieth anniversary, this year, is

Show accompanies the Museum's current exhibition, DECADE OF A display of clippings, cartoons and photographs which comment on the 1913